GeoBlue Medical Insurance Coverage

- 2) UNC affiliates must be enrolled in GeoBlue to purchase coverage for non-affiliated spouses and children. For example, if you are offered health insurance coverage as a UNC student but the policy does not include your spouse or children, your family would only be eligible for GeoBlue coverage if you enrolled in the GeoBlue policy as well.
- 3) For those in J status, UNC's policy with GeoBlue meets and exceeds the U.S. Department of State's requirements. Please contact your international student or scholar advisor for more information regarding the insurance requirement for J-1/J-2 exchange visitors.
- 4) UNC's GeoBlue policy includes coverage for "repatriation and evacuation". Additionally, GeoBlue offers stand-alone coverage for repatriation and evacuation if your medical insurance coverage that does not include repatriation and evacuation (for example, the State Health Plans of North Carolina offered to UNC employees does not include repatriation and evacuation coverage). To enroll in stand-alone repatriation and evacuation please email the University's Risk Management Specialist, Janet Hoernke at: Janet_Hoernke@unc.edu with the subject line: Inbound Stand Alone Med Evac/Repat Starting DD/MM/YYYY (enter the requested start date of coverage here). Janet will follow-up with additional instructions for enrollment and policy details.
